

May 18, 2008

Dear Applicant:

It is important that you read this letter in its entirety, as certain locations and times have changed.

The six-time Nationally Accredited Hampton Police Division is currently posting for the positions of Police Patrol Recruit and Police Cadet. Postings dates are as follows: May 25, through June 13, 2009. You must visit the City of Hampton Department of Human Resources website at www.hampton.gov/hire/ to make application. This will require you to submit an application, answer supplemental questions, choose a hiring assembly to attend and download the background questionnaire. Be sure to click on the “Save and Proceed or Save and Release” prompt after completion. If you do not have internet access, there are several computers located in the Office of Human Resources at 22 Lincoln St, Hampton, VA 23669. Their telephone number is 727-6407.

The dates of the assemblies and other significant steps, can be found on page seven (7) of this letter. The assembly and testing will take approximately four (6) hours.

Note: We advise applicants to wear appropriate physical attire clothing the day of the Assembly. Applicants are required to submit the 11-page HPD Background Questionnaire prior to or on the date of assembly attendance.

The Assembly will consist of an overview of the Hampton Police Division's qualifications, disqualifiers, selection process, benefit package, training and will answer any additional questions that you may have. At the completion of the assembly portion, all applicants continuing in the process will submit to a written test (page 4), personal interview, and physical ability test. Each step will be thoroughly explained at the assembly. The physical ability tests will take place outside, regardless of the weather therefore, we encourage weather appropriate attire i.e. warm-ups, workout clothes and running shoes.

The assemblies will be held at The Hampton City Hall Building, 8th floor Council Chambers, 22 Lincoln Street on June 16 – 18, 2009 at 8:30 am.

On page 2, you will find an Applicant Instruction Sheet with directions you must follow. It is preferred that items identified in Part-I and II, be brought with you to the assembly. If you do not have all of the paperwork listed, you will have the opportunity to submit it at a later time.

If you have any questions, please contact the Personnel and Recruiting Office. Contact information is below. For more information about the Hampton Police Division, applicants are urged to visit us online at <http://www.hampton.gov/police/>.

Sincerely,

C. R. Jordan, Jr.
Chief of Police

EOE

APPLICANT SELECTION PROCESS

- a. Posting - The job announcement is made public.
- b. Assembly - Applicants are assembled and given an overview of the Selection Process. Applications and questionnaire are completed at this time.
- c. Physical Ability Testing - To determine if the applicant is physically suited for a career in Law Enforcement. Physical Training attire required, i.e. shorts, T-shirt, sneakers. Eyeglass ware and corrective lenses are allowed, as they are considered affordable accommodation under ADA.
- d. Written Examination - A comprehensive examination that tests the applicant's ability in the following basic areas: reading comprehension, grammar, math, and writing skills.
- e. Personal Interview - The background questionnaire is reviewed focusing on areas of Driving history, Criminal history, and Drug usage to ascertain instant disqualifiers. The applicant may be rejected at this phase.
- f. Oral Interview Board -An oral interview panel evaluates each applicant based on their responses to set questions. By combining Oral Board scores with Personal Interview points, a final ranking of each applicant is made.
- g. Background Interview/Polygraph - The application is reviewed in depth with the applicant. This is to verify the accuracy and the integrity of information provided on applications and during interviews. The Background Questionnaire is the "Blueprint" for the line of questions asked during polygraph. Applicants under consideration must sign a conditional job offer prior to polygraph. Polygraph results will not be used as the sole determinant of future employment in the Division. Background investigations are also initiated photographs and fingerprints at this time.
- h. Psychological Testing - This is to determine if the applicant is psychologically suited for a career in Law Enforcement. This testing consists of two separate procedures, written test and personal interview.
- i. Physical Examination - This is to determine if the applicant is physically suited for a career in Law Enforcement. This testing consists of two separate procedures conducted by a licensed physician and medical facility under contract with the City.
- j. Senior Management Review - At this stage, candidates have achieved an overall high ranking and possess a favorable background. The Professional Standards Branch Commander and at least one staff officer will conduct a management level review before candidates are presented to the Chief of Police for final selection.
- k. Chief's/Major's Selection - During this interview, the Major in charge of Professional Standards makes his/her selection or non-selection of the applicant. The Major in charge of Professional Standards selects all personnel prior to employment.

Applicants must attend and successfully complete every phase of the hiring process to be considered for employment.
